At home in Alaska.

Building the best, by land, air and sea.

Saltchuk Alaska:

A family of transportation companies

Carlile is one of Alaska's largest trucking companies, offering fully integrated transportation and logistics services in Alaska and all of North America.

Cook Inlet Tug & Barge provides premium marine services throughout South Central Alaska specializing in harbor services in the Port of Anchorage and Cook Inlet.

Delta Western Petroleum operates through 13 marine and shore-based terminals to provide fuels and lubricants throughout Alaska. It proudly serves the state's fishing, mining, oil and gas and construction industries. Delta Western also delivers to remote Alaskan bush and coastal communities via shallow-draft barge services.

Foss has been solving complex logistics and transportation challenges in the Arctic's extreme environments for more than a century. With three new Arctic Class tugs, Foss continues to be a leader in support for oil and gas industry.

Northern Air Cargo (NAC) is Alaska's largest all-cargo airline, connecting 13 rural communities with essential supplies since 1956. NAC OnDemand charter and ACMI lease services offered throughout the U.S. and Central America. Northern Air Maintenance Services (NAMS) provides aviation support services to Alaska's oil and gas industry.

Northern Oilfield Services, Inc. (NOSI) provides exploration and development support services to Alaska's largest oil and mining companies.

TOTE Maritime provides regular ocean transportation between Port of Tacoma and Port of Anchorage. TOTE Maritime transports more than one-third of all cargo consumed along the Alaskan Railbelt.

Serving Alaska and Beyond

From the Bering Sea to Barrow, Anchorage to Aniak and dozens of communities across the Last Frontier, Saltchuk is at home in Alaska. Our companies connect the roads, waterways and runways of Alaska – providing fuel, cargo and other essential services that keep Alaskans moving.

Saltchuk collectively is one of the state's largest private employers with more than 1,000 employees and their families calling Alaska home.

When you partner with a Saltchuk company, you instantly gain a team of experts with the knowledge, equipment and can-do spirit to get the job done – safely and reliably. You also get a national transportation network with the resources to deliver seamless services beyond Alaska.

Environmental Leadership

Saltchuk is committed to operating in a way that minimizes negative impacts on the environment. Our goal is to be an industry leader and innovator in our stewardship of the environment.

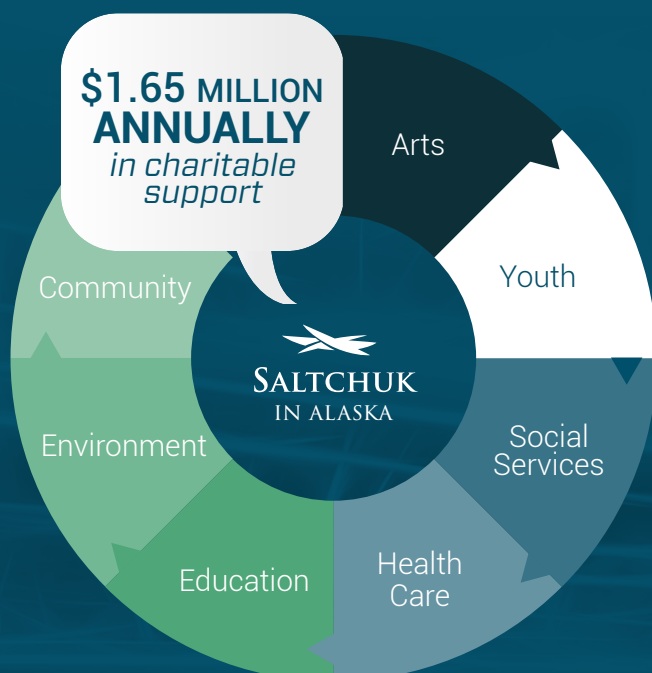

Saltchuk is proud of our companies' investments in clean technology and alternative fuels that have set new standards in reducing carbon emissions and improving air quality in the transportation industry.

Code of Ethics

We want Saltchuk companies to be the kind of place where we would all be proud for our children to work. We expect the employees at all of our companies to always be honest and ethical in the performance of their company's business and to meet the highest standards of business behavior. A shared Code of Ethical Business Conduct helps guide our organization.

Giving back is at the heart of what it means to be a Saltchuk company.

Giving back to our Alaska communities

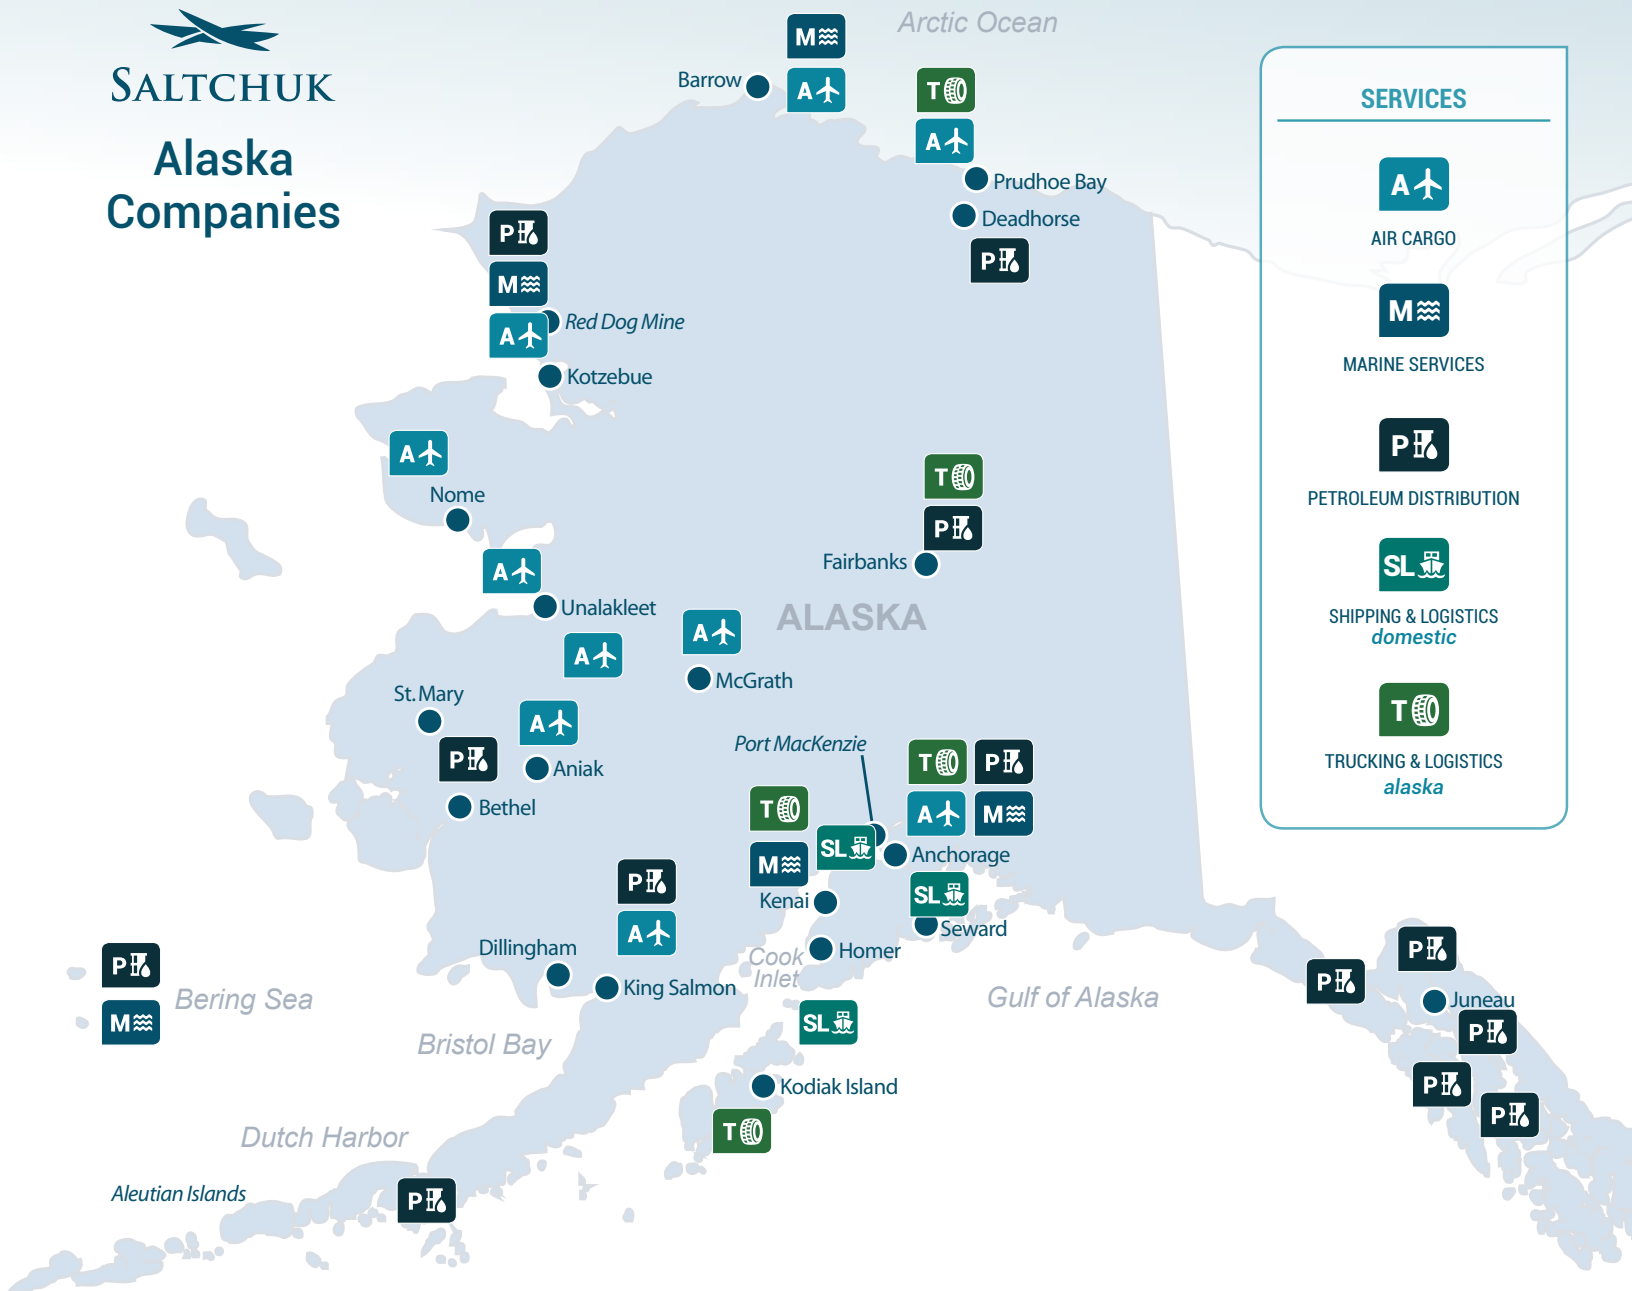

Saltchuk's Alaska companies and employees proudly support their hometown communities by giving time, money and services to organizations and causes that matter to them. Our companies also work together as the Saltchuk Alaska Regional Giving Committee to support Alaska's next generation with grants to support Youth Development and Post Secondary Education right here at home.
